Thank you so much for your kindness and hospitality in making the finding of 'the dress' as stress-free as possible. Rachel was a very big help to me, since I had no idea how to go about finding the perfect dress. I would have been lost without her. Your shop is very personal and relaxed and I felt at ease; unlike David's Bidal where I felt like just another 'cookie cutter' bride whom they were just trying to sell another dress to. I will definitely tell all of my friends about the wonderful experience of finding my dress at your shop. Thank you for the discount you gave me because of Rachel; I hadn't expected that. That was very kind of you. Thank you. We all enjoyed this experience very much.

Your kindness

will always be remembered and appreciated.

I'm sure we will all be back in your shop again between now and August. Have to find a dress for my aunt too! The jewelry you have in stock is very beautiful and was just what I was looking for. Thank you for having such a wonderful variety of things to choose from. Thank you again for all your kindness and hospitality. It was greatly appreciated.
